Contemporary decor centred around the professions of the vine and the love of wine, its somewhat mysterious alchemy, spa, indoor swimming pool, luxurious rooms, the B55 hotel and its 4 stars open onto the heart of Paris and beats in unison with the capital.

But our guests will tell you: here, our richness is the calm. Curious isn't it? La butte au Caille, the Montsouris park assures our visitors unforgettable bucolic walks. Barely further on, the capital's must-see monuments are just waiting for you.

Of course, these are not our only assets... Our unequalled comfort, the incomparable service of our staff, the quality of the dishes served for breakfast are also noble cards in our game.

Not forgetting, for the amateurs, the self-service wine machine.

Planning a holiday or business trip for a birthday or a trade show is a luxury today. A luxury that can be expensive for people who are involved with an establishment that is less provident than we are about how to pay for the stay.

Booking a stay, but with what risks?

Confinement is an uncertain period and yet it will end one day soon for the greatest happiness of the clients and the B55 teams who absolutely want to live your happiness with you, again. Soon the weather will be favourable for tourist outings: everyone knows that. Paris will always be Paris and you will come back to see us with even more joy than before.

But we have a moral duty towards you: it is to adapt and to plan for the post-confinement, the return of spring and then summer days in the euphoria of friendly, loving, family, artistic and professional encounters. Stays without anxiety, full of simple joys such as "Hello".
